

Security risk assessment report

Part 1: Select up to three hardening tools and methods to implement

User account policies
Access controls
Firewall configuration

Part 2: Explain your recommendations

I recommend implementing user account policies, access controls, and firewall configuration. User account policies, such as strong passwords and account lockout, help prevent unauthorized access. Access controls ensure users only have permission to access the resources they need, reducing the impact of compromised accounts.